

The Hope Bearer Award

Program Overview

The Hope Bearer Award encourages students to memorize key Bible passages about hope, trust, and the promise of Jesus' return. Families can earn tuition credit when students successfully memorize and recite these passages. This award honors JJ Wong's love for hiding God's word in her heart and encourages others to follow her example.

Award Structure:

- Students earn scholarship credit per passage (see chart below).
- Students who complete all seven passages receive The Hope Bearer Award, recognition at chapel, and their name on a plaque in the hallway.
